The News.

Careful investigation by the proper authorities reveals the horrifying fact that the candies known as "Chocolate bombs," and "Rock and Rye drops." ars composed partly of fusil oil and alcohol, and three of them contain enough intoxicants to make a man drunk. We are aware that the rum-power is striving by systematic effort to establish a trade for their traffic by creating an appetite for their vile stuff, but the attempt to cultivate this appetite in little children in this manner exhibits a degree of moral depravity greater than we expected to find.

According to statistics, the arrivals in this world are 100,000 per day, or 36,792,000 per annum; and the departures are 67,790 per day. The arrivals have but a limited time to remain. The departing are filling up the measured territory of the unseen world, and their stay in that world is eternal. When did you arrive? When will you leave? And what will be your destiny in the place where you are going?

It is believed that the Mahdi is concentrating his forces to again attack Gen. Stewart and the result is awaited with grave apprehension by the English. The vexed Egyptian question hangs in and uncertain balance.

The prospects of continental war in Egypt is likely to have some influence on our grain markets.

HOW TO GET IN, And How to Get Out.—Matters which will Repay Consideration

There is going to be an enormous gathering of people at Washington next month, and while every provision is being made in advance to avoid confusion and insure the comfort of all, still "the gods help them who help themselves." To look out for number one is but the natural course a sensible man would follow, The railroad situation in Washington is easily understood, There are but two depots in the city. Into one will come an aggregegation of travel form the South, the North, the East and the West—train after train, thousands upon thousands of people, until "packed like sardines in a box" would be but a feeble way to put it. Into the other depot will come only the trains of the Baltimore and Ohio, that Company owning and using it exclusively for its own business—everything in the hands of its own officials, and details so arranged that there can be no mixing up or getting on or off trains at wrong times and wrong places. Indeed, it would not take much thought on the part of those who have had any experience whatever as to crowds to appreciate the advantage the B. & O. possesses in Washington. Then, too, are the facilities the lines have in regard to track room and unrestricted means of getting trains directly into depots. For instance the B. & O. is the only road into Washington which can and does separate its passenger coaches so that trains from the West come into Washington on the tracks of one division, and the trains from the East and North on the tracks of another division.

The great importance of these facilities may be appreciated from the fact that all the trains that enter the National Capital upon other lines than the B. & O., come together in a single depot, and the packing and jamming will be something terrific to behold, let alone getting in and about them. The great number of trains from the Southern lines alone would completely fill a depot double the capacity of the one in question, and when to them are added those from other sections, the chances are that a good many will have to walk into town or spend the day or night aboard in vain regrets that tickets were not bought of the B. & O.

Another item of no ordinary interest to Western people is that by any other line to Washington than the Baltimore and Ohio all trains from the West have to come together with trains from the East and North and all use one South-bound track for some forty odd miles. That is to say, that no other line but the B. & O. has two different divisions into Washington, one for its trains from the West, and one for its trains from the North and East. All this may prove more or less confusing and perplexing to those who contemplate attending the Inauguration, and the best way to settle all doubt is to decide to go by the B. & O. and thus avoid all danger of going wrong.

PUBLISHERS' DEPARTMENT.

Look at This.

About the first of March we expect to go over our mailing list and take out the names of all persons who have not paid in advance or given us notice that they want their paper continued and will pay at a specified time in the future. If you are in arrears aud want your paper continued, please give us notice at once what you intend to do.

The Winter is Not Over.

The winter is not over yet brethren, and you have plenty of time to canvass for the EVANGELIST. Remember that we intend to print a paper that is worthy of a place in any Christian home. When every family in the Church takes it then go to the unconverted. A little persuasion will have its effect and they will take the paper, four six, or twelve months. We ought to have one thousand more names on our list. Who will help us?

"Don't Get My Paper."

The caption to this article is a very common complaint in every newspaper office. It requires the most careful attention to mail an edition of a newspaper correctly, and then after it is mailed the papers are thumped about in the mail sacks, subjected to many handlings when they go a long distance and if they arrive at their destination, probably a careless post-master, will put them into a wrong box, and they will be handed out to a stranger who will never return them.

Every care is taken in our Publishing House to mail the papers correctly, but errors will occur; and if any of our patrons have not received what belongs to them, or do not receive their paper regularly, inquire, particularly at your post office whether the paper fails to come, and if it does not write to us at once, for what you have missed.

The College Record.

The College Record for February will be published this week. It is a bright monthly, half the size of the EVANGELIST. It will contain the College News, Society articles, editorials, miscellaneous matter. Subscription, 25 cents per year, six months 15 cents. A neat book "Our Dead Poets" will be given as a premium for two subscribers, 50 cents. Address the Pub. House.

Renew Your Subscription.

We have a number of names on our books yet whose subscriptions have expired, and they have not renewed for this year, nor informed us whether they wish their paper continued or not. We do not wish to send the paper to any brother who does not want it, and will not pay for it, but we do want and do need every subscription that we can get, and we desire that all our patrons, who have not already done so, will inform us whether they wish their paper continued.

We have had a large sale of Annuals, so far, but are still having a supply on hands, and we can safely recommend them to our brethren as well worth the money. Remember that the almanac is only an insignificant part of the Annual, and it is not out of date yet.

The Brethren's Mutual Relief Association.

The Brethren's Mutual Relief Association is a benevolent, property insurance institution. The aim is not to make money, but only to secure among ourselves what is costing a great deal of money among others.

To the Brethren of Ohio we would especially say, if you have property to insure, put at least a portion in our Association, and in a year or two, we will have an extensive insurance association of our own, and will save many hundred dollars that are now paid out for guarantees against loss by fire and lightning, and still have insurance more safe and reliable.
